

EL PASO'S ONLY EXCLUSIVE READY-TO-WEAR STORE

Extraordinary Values in Elaborate Easter Suits

THE sensation of the week has been our selling elaborate tailored suits at extraordinarily low prices. These suits were specially ordered for our recent Fashion Show. There are no duplicates, and each suit is perfect in every detail. Now that there are only three days left in which to select the Easter suit, you can save considerable time, not to mention the actual saving in money, by purchasing one of these. They are so superior in make that only minor alterations will be required to give you a faultless fit. Every style and color of the present season is shown—in addition, there is a full range of sizes. For convenience we have arranged two lots—as follows:

Offer No. 1
Suits Worth to $50.00

Offer No. 2
Suits Worth to $75.00

$29.50 $39.75

$5.00 SILK PETTICOATS $2.95

Another big special for the balance of the week is Silk Petticoats. These garments are made of superior quality silk in black and all the fashionable shades—to harmonize with the Easter gown. You have often paid $5.00 for this same grade of Petticoat. To interest you in our other Easter offerings, we $2.95 make them an Extra Special for the balance of the week at $2.95

Deafness Cured

Hyomei Caused Earl Howe's Hearing to Return.

"Catarrh bothered me over a year, when I became deaf. Then I commenced to doctor to get rid of the deafness. I became discouraged at the outlook, and well I might be, for there was nothing I used that helped me. The trouble continued until I was advised to try Hyomei. I used Hyomei thoroughly, as per directions for a few weeks, and much to my surprise the deafness and catarrh left me entirely. Since using this wonderful remedy there has been no return of the trouble whatever. My hearing is good, and there is no catarrh trouble, and for this reason I know I have abundant cause for calling Hyomei a wonderful remedy, and endorsing its use."—Earl Howe, 202 Cherry Street, Allegan, Mich.

Hyomei is guaranteed by druggists everywhere, and by Kelly & Pollard, to cure catarrh and all nose and throat diseases, or money back. A complete outfit, including an indestructible hard rubber inhaler, costs $1.00. Extra bottles, if afterwards needed, cost 50 cents.

CADETS MUST REPORT THURSDAY

Students Not Back at Institute by That Time Will Be Expelled.

Thursday morning at roll call is the last chance the cadets of the Military Institute who went out on what they have termed a "strike" to return to the school. This is the ultimatum which has been issued by Capt. Thomas A. Davis, commandant of the school, with the sanction of the board of directors. This includes all students who are enrolled in the institute regardless of whether or not they have examinations scheduled for that day. Those who did not report for work on Thursday morning will be expelled from the institution.

A number of the boys who were implicated in the walkout returned to school this morning. Capt. Davis said, and it is expected that the greater part of the student body will report Thursday morning. Classes and drills were conducted this morning as usual at the institute. Capt. Davis conducting the drill and also hearing Capt. Wood's classes.

At the meeting held Tuesday, the leaders of the prank appointed a committee of four cadets to confer with the directors, according to the statement of one of the cadets who walked out. One of the directors stated today that while the boys of the committee would be heard, they could expect no sympathy from the board of directors.

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by all druggists.

RABBIT'S FOOT LOSES ITS CHARM FOR NEGRO.

When Doc Miller, a negro, was arrested by customs officials in connection with an opium case he had in his possession "the left hind foot of a gray-eyed rabbit, killed at midnight on Friday, the 13th." The negro stated that he had carried the rabbit's foot for years, according to a customs inspector who was carrying it in a burnt leather pocketbook. The charm is still in the possession of the customs authorities.

TEQUILA SEIZED AT BRIDGE; PAIS ARRESTED.

Excitement was caused at the Santa Fe street bridge last night about 6:30 p.m. when Rafael Pais and two others, attempted to drive over the bridge from Juarez. Customs inspectors Caples was reaching into the buggy for a gallon of tequila, when one of the Mexicans whipped up the horse. Pais was captured, but the other two escaped. Customs inspectors say they know who the other two men are. Charges of smuggling tequila and resisting an officer are to be made against Pais, officials say.

ARTISTS HERE FOR MATERIAL

Magazine Workers, After Visit Here Will Tour Old Mexico.

A. L. Scherzer and Miss Roselle Scherzer, magazine artists, are sojourners in El Paso. They have come to see a bull fight or two, with a view of touring Mexico in search of pictorial material.

Mr. and Miss Scherzer are Germans, but long residents of the United States. Both have studied at the Royal academy at Munich, and their names are well known to magazine folk throughout the United States.

For some weeks they have been gaining material among the Indians of New Mexico. Mr. Scherzer chiefly does black and white illustrative work, while his sister does color painting.

"This is a wonderful field for an artist," said Mr. Scherzer at hotel Zeiger. "It is stranger that more do not take advantage of it."
